HOTEL, ERFURT

Welcome

Erfurt is famous for being the green city at the heart of Germany and has recently become recognised as one of the most important and beautiful cities in Europe.

The monumental ensemble of Cathedral and Saint Severi church with the Gloriosa bell, over 500 years old, world famous and sonorous, the rich patricians houses and charming half-timbered buildings; and the many churches which gave the city the epithet "the Thuringian Rome", make the over 1265-year-old city of Erfurt a picture book of Germany history.

The Krämerbrücke (Merchants Bridge) is unique in Europe. In the middle of one of the best-preserved medieval city centres in Germany. It is 120 m long with inhabited buildings from one end to the other. Past and present coexist in harmony. A great variety of restaurants and cafés enliven the historical city centre.

As the economic, intellectual, cultural and political centre of Thuringia, Erfurt attracted important figures such as Luther, Adam Ries, Goethe, Schiller; Herder; Wieland, Bach, Humboldt, Tzar Alexander and Napoleon during its varied history.
